- (D) Associate vice president for human resources and employee relations.
- (1) The associate vice president for human resources and employee relations shall be appointed by the board upon recommendation of the president, and shall hold office at the discretion of the president, and shall be responsible to the president through the vice president of finance and administration and chief financial officer.
 - (2) The associate vice president for human resources and employee relations shall be responsible for those items listed in paragraph (B) of rule 3359-03-05 of the Administrative Code.
- (E) Associate vice president/controller.
- (1) The associate vice president/controller shall be appointed by the board upon recommendation of the president, shall hold office at the discretion of the president, and shall be responsible to the president through the vice president for finance and administration and chief financial officer.

- (2) The associate vice president/controller shall be responsible to the vice president for finance and administration and chief financial officer for the administration of the functions encompassed by the separate areas of purchasing, student accounts/bursar, and the controller.
 - (3) The associate vice president/controller shall maintain accounting records, on a consistent basis, in which all funds, accounts, receipts, expenditures, and financial matters of the university shall be entered and posted in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, so as to show fully and clearly at all times the financial condition of the university.
 - (4) The associate vice president/controller shall keep an inventory of all university property used for instructional, research, and residential purposes, and statistics as to the use thereof, and its condition.
 - (5) The associate vice president/controller shall prepare periodic financial reports for presentation to the board by the vice president for finance and administration and chief financial officer and shall also prepare periodic financial reports for presentation to various state and federal agencies, as required by state and federal agencies.
 - (6) The associate vice president/controller shall be responsible for the receipt of and disbursing of all funds, and shall assist the treasurer in the investment of all available current funds.
 - (7) The associate vice president/controller shall perform other duties as may be assigned by the vice president for finance and administration and chief financial officer.
- (F) Director of purchasing.
- (1) The director of purchasing shall be appointed by the board upon the recommendation of the president and shall hold office at the discretion of the president. The director of purchasing shall be responsible to the president through the vice president for finance and administration and chief financial officer.

- (2) The director of purchasing conducts routine purchasing, accounting, and budget control transactions in accordance with good business practice and, where applicable, the regulations of the state of Ohio. The purchasing procedures to be followed shall be:
- (a) Contracts involving the expenditures of money within the limits fixed by board appropriation may be made on behalf of the university by the president, vice president for finance and administration and chief financial officer, director of purchasing, or senior vice president and provost and chief operating officer, within the scope of their authority, as set forth in the bylaws and regulations of the board.
 - (b) The dean of the university libraries and the law librarian may make contracts for the purchase of library books and periodicals and to execute license agreements for additional library resources, within their budgets for the respective libraries.
 - (c) The director of E. J. Thomas performing arts hall may purchase the services of performing artists and enter into contracts with these artists on behalf of the university. The athletic director may execute contracts with other colleges and universities for intercollegiate athletic events.
 - (d) Purchases shall be made on forms containing certificates indicating the tax exempt status of the university.
 - (e) A competitive bid process and/or a negotiation process, as approved by the director of purchasing and the office of general counsel, shall be utilized in all cases where the goods or services to be purchased shall cost in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars and contracts for the purchase of such goods or services shall be awarded in accordance with established university procedures.
 - (f) Any purchase of goods or services that cost less than twenty-five thousand dollars may be submitted to vendors for competitive bidding. In determining whether competitive bidding and/or negotiations shall be appropriate, the director of purchasing shall consider the availability of source of materials or services or whether timely quotations for such materials or services are already available. The foregoing requirements for competitive bidding shall not apply to:

- (i) the purchase of stock for purposes of resale in campus stores;
- (ii) the purchase of books or publications for the campus libraries;
- (iii) situations involving emergencies;
- (iv) the purchase of proprietary goods or services that are only available from a sole source;
- (v) professional contracted services;
- (vi) the purchase of goods or services from vendors covered by consortium group contracts such as the state of Ohio, inter-university council of Ohio (IUC), and community, university, and educational cooperative and purchasing association (CUE); or
- (vii) any approved negotiation processes.

The director of purchasing shall take full advantage of state of Ohio contracts with suppliers negotiated by the Ohio department of administrative services, state purchasing department. The director of purchasing shall also make efficient use of the inter-university council purchasing contracts and other cooperative purchasing association contracts available to state universities.

- (g) Any purchase of construction services in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars must be by competitive bid. For construction services in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars a request for competitive bid must be advertised in a newspaper of general circulation and/or other electronic means approved by the director of purchasing.

The limitations provided in this authority shall not be avoided through multiple purchases of goods or services under the limits authorized or through aggregations or purchases at the same or different times.

- (h) Any purchase of goods or services in excess of one hundred fifty thousand dollars, except for subcontracts issued through externally funded research grants and contracts for which the university is the grantee, shall be submitted to the board for prior approval. All purchases of goods and services in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars, but less than one hundred fifty thousand dollars, including all subcontracts through externally funded grants, shall be reported to the board.

Except where prohibited by law, competitive bidding requirements of the university may be waived under limited and exceptional circumstances. Exceptional circumstances which warrant the waiver of competitive bidding include, but are not limited to, responding to emergencies resulting from fire, flood, freezing, or other acts of God or force majeure, situations in which it may reasonably be determined by a prudent person standard that there is substantial financial or other risk or substantial financial or other opportunity to the university such that the risk or opportunity clearly warrants waiver, as well as emergencies necessitated by the immediate need to comply with laws or regulations affecting persons or property owned, leased, or operated by the university.

In order to implement the procedure to waive competitive bidding, the appropriate vice president must provide such request for waiver to the director of purchasing in advance with a written certification by the vice president as to the rationale supporting the need to waive competitive bidding. The director of purchasing shall review all requests for waiver with the office of general counsel, and the director of purchasing shall make the final decision as to whether the waiver shall be authorized based on the guidelines in this rule.

Purchases resulting from the waiver of competitive bidding shall be separately identified in the vendor reports provided to the board of trustees at the next regularly scheduled meeting of the board of trustees. In no event shall the director of purchasing waive competitive bidding for any purchase in excess of one hundred fifty-thousand dollars.

The limitations provided in this authority shall not be avoided through multiple purchases of goods or services under the limits authorized or through aggregations or purchases at the same or different times.

- (i) The director of purchasing shall search for new vendors and contractors, especially vendors and contractors owned and operated by individuals categorized as minorities, and shall honor state laws concerning purchasing set aside rules favoring minorities, and shall communicate to others on campus the desirability of using minority vendors.
- (j) The purchase of insurance occasionally can be more economical and efficient through direct placement rather than competitive bid. In such instances, the trustees must be notified of action taken and the vice president for finance and administration and chief financial officer shall report why the purchase was done by direct placement rather than through competitive bid.
- (k) The director of purchasing shall perform other duties as assigned by the vice president for finance and administration and chief financial officer.
- (l) The director of purchasing shall establish a travel program for all employees at the university of Akron, which will provide for consistency with all university rules and practices and prohibitions that are not consistent with such program. Such program shall be subject to review and approval by the vice president for finance and administration and chief financial officer and the vice president and general counsel.
