General Updates from Stephen Myers

- Wonder Bread building—will be completed by early May.
- Center for Decision for Manufacturing—basically completed.
- EJ Thomas—repairs ongoing.
- Mary Gladwin Hall—renovation of room 305 is 60% complete.
- Renovation for blue gym in rec center is essentially complete.
- Starbucks in Student Union due for refresh—design underway.
- Buchtel Commons hard scape renovation—end of design development. Reviewing budget.
- Lab work in Goodyear
- Knight Center Creative Engagement—moving along
- Crouse Hall—frame for big yellow alien is up.
- Infocision Stadium—received bids and awarded.
- Fans for natatorium installed.
- Dorothy space—study of basement which is supposed to be turned over May 16.
- Elevator modernization—bid to go out soon. Pulled Polsky elevators and moving to this project.
- There will be a hole dug over by the jar construction and building a concrete walkway to go around the space. The mechanical vault that services jar has been failing structurally for a while. So that is getting repaired this summer.
- Electrical infrastructure work is almost done but the transformer that was ordered last year is expected to arrive in May, 2025.
- PFOC updating controls on chiller #4 and rebuilding on chiller #6 is almost done which will help with cooling on campus. The balancing on cooling tower #3 that was started last year is scheduled for Monday.
- The Goodyear polymer building is closed at least through Monday as one of the water lines failed and water went into a lot of places including the elevator.
- Beginning Monday, May 13th at 7am for that week, there will be interrupted power to Bierce, parking deck north, Simmons hall, Honors complex. The electrical engineer has reached out to the people directly impacted.
- Entity that was interested in buying the Martin Center has backed out. Other interested parties have been touring the building.
- After graduation, the work on the Sumner St intersection will begin. Work should be completed before September.
- The construction work near the Infocision Stadium is actually not the University's property. It will be the new Lone Star fraternity house.

Announcements

- Steve will be presenting to University Council in early May.
- If anyone interested in chairing this committee for next year, please contact Marilia.
